SCOTUS 1

37. In 2016, the Republican-controlled Senate refused to consider President Obama’s nominee for the Supreme Court when Justice Antonin Scalia died, saying it was February in an election year and the next president should get to pick. Now the Republican-controlled Senate says it will consider President Trump’s nominee for the Supreme Court to replace the late Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, even though it is September in an election year, this would keep the next president from being able to pick the next justice. Do you believe the Senate should vote on Amy Coney Barrett for the Supreme Court or wait until after the election and let the next President make the nomination? [Note: Amy Coney Barrett name added for 10/6]
