New Report from National Latino Commission on Census 2020 to Outline Recommendations for Full Count of Latinos

Report will be released during a May 22 briefing in D.C. featuring NALEO Educational Fund CEO Arturo Vargas, California Secretary of State Alex Padilla and Miami-Dade County School Board Member Lubby Navarro

Washington, D.C. – The National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials (NALEO) Educational Fund and the National Latino Commission on Census 2020 today announced that they will host a Latino State of Census 2020 briefing on May 22, 2019 from 11 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. ET at the National Press Club in Washington D.C.

During the briefing, the National Latino Commission on Census 2020 will release a new report outlining the state of Census 2020 for Latinos and its findings and recommendations for how Congress, the U.S. Census Bureau and the Administration can act now to ensure that the Latino community is fully counted.

NALEO Educational Fund established the National Latino Commission on Census 2020 with nine prominent Commissioners (as well as one Guest Commissioner) from different regions of the country to compile crucial information and seek the best recommendations about the 2020 Census. The Commission held five hearings across the nation (Cleveland, Los Angeles, New York City, Orlando and San Antonio), taking testimony from deeply knowledgeable panelists and other experts from the front lines.

Speakers at the briefing will include NALEO Educational Fund CEO Arturo Vargas, California Secretary of State and National Latino Census Commission Co-Chair Alex Padilla, and Miami-Dade County School Board Member and National Latino Census Commission Co-Chair Lubby Navarro. The U.S. Census Bureau has also been invited to make remarks.
