Vice President Joe Biden to Address Virtual NALEO 37th Annual Conference

The former Vice President and presumptive Democratic Party nominee for President will address Latino leaders at NALEO Annual Conference

Washington, D.C. – The National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials (NALEO) announced today that the former Vice President and presumptive Democratic Party nominee for President, Joe Biden, will address the nation’s largest gathering of Latino policymakers during the NALEO Presidential Candidate and National Leadership Forum on Thursday, August 6, 2020.

NALEO is hosting the presidential candidate forum in partnership with Wells Fargo as part of this year’s Virtual NALEO 37th Annual Conference (August 5-6, 2020). The conference marks the first virtual gathering of its kind for NALEO, allowing the organization to hold the event safely amid the COVID-19 pandemic.
