Vice President Kamala Harris to Address NALEO 39th Annual Conference

The Vice President will address the nation's largest gathering of Latino policymakers from across the country in Chicago

CHICAGO, IL – The National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials (NALEO) announced today that Vice President Kamala Harris will provide remarks during the NALEO 39th Annual Conference — the nation's largest gathering of Latino policymakers on Friday, June 24, 2022.

The event will be the first in-person Conference NALEO has hosted since 2019, prior to the start of the pandemic, and will take place in Chicago, Illinois, from June 23–25, 2022.

"It is an honor to have Vice President Kamala Harris join us as we gather Latino leaders in Chicago for the nation's largest Latino political convention," stated NALEO Educational Fund CEO Arturo Vargas. "With this year marking our first in-person Conference in three years, we are thrilled to facilitate this great opportunity for NALEO members and Latino policymakers across the country to connect with our nation's leadership."

Every year, the NALEO Annual Conference brings together hundreds of Latino leaders and their supporters from across the country and across the aisle to facilitate the meaningful exchange of ideas and foster solutions around today's most pressing policy issues. NALEO is excited to have Vice President Harris join us in these discussions.
