President Joe Biden and Former President Donald Trump Invited to Address NALEO 41st Annual Conference

"With less than six months to go before the country heads to the polls, and with Latinos poised to play a critical role in the outcome of this year's elections, we fully expect President Biden and former President Trump to show up and engage our constituency on the issues that matter most to them and the millions of Americans they represent."

— NALEO Educational Fund CEO Arturo Vargas

LAS VEGAS, NV— The National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials (NALEO) announced today that President Joseph R. Biden and former President Donald J. Trump, presumptive nominees of their respective parties for president in 2024, have been invited to address the NALEO 41st Annual Conference during its Presidential Candidate Forum on June 20, 2024.

Every year, the NALEO Annual Conference serves as the nation's premier Latino political convention, bringing together hundreds of Latino leaders and their supporters from across the country to promote the meaningful exchange of ideas and foster solutions around the most pressing policy issues affecting the country today. This year, the three-day event will take place in Las Vegas, Nevada, at the Bellagio Las Vegas June 18–20, 2024.

"As it is our tradition, we are excited to announce that we have extended an invitation to both the Republican and Democratic presumptive nominees for president of the United States to address our annual conference," said NALEO and NALEO Educational Fund CEO Arturo Vargas. "Since 1992, presidents, vice presidents, and candidates from both sides of the aisle have accepted our invitations to speak before Latino leaders who gather for a major three-day event to network and discuss important issues affecting our communities. With less than six months to go before the country heads to the polls, and with Latinos poised to play a critical role in the outcome of this year's elections, we fully expect President Biden and former President Trump to attend and engage our constituency on the issues that matter most to them and the millions of Americans they represent."

Previous NALEO Annual Conferences have featured Presidents Barack Obama and Joe Biden; presumptive presidential nominees Senators Mitt Romney and John McCain; as well as presidential candidates Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development Ben Carson, and Senator Bernie Sanders.

Additional details will be announced soon, including the full Conference agenda, session information, and featured speakers.

The NALEO 41st Annual Conference is made possible through the generous support of our Presenting Sponsors, State Farm® and Wells Fargo.
