Biden Administration Cabinet Secretaries to Speak at NALEO 41st Annual Conference

U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services Xavier Becerra and Acting U.S. Secretary of Labor Julie Su to address the nation's largest gathering of Latino public officials

LAS VEGAS, NV— The National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials (NALEO) announced today that the Honorable Xavier Becerra, U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services, and the Honorable Julie Su, Acting Secretary of Labor will address the NALEO 41st Annual Conference — the nation's largest gathering of Latino policymakers. The Conference is returning to Las Vegas at the Bellagio Las Vegas, June 18–20, 2024.

"We look forward to having members of the administration engage with our nation's Latino leaders at a critical time for our community," said NALEO Educational Fund CEO Arturo Vargas. "Hearing their perspective on some of the topics that will be addressed at the Conference — including the economy, the humanitarian crisis at the border, working through America's political division, and mental health challenges in public office — will be of great importance to attendees."

Every year, the NALEO Annual Conference brings together hundreds of Latino leaders and their supporters from across the country to facilitate the meaningful exchange of ideas and foster solutions around the most current pressing policy issues. Just as we were pleased to have hosted Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro N. Mayorkas and U.S. Small Business Administration Administrator Isabella Casillas Guzman for last year's Conference in New York City, and Education Secretary Miguel Cardona in Chicago in 2022, NALEO is thrilled to have Secretary Xavier Becerra join us again this year, and Acting Secretary of Labor Julie Su."

Additionally, U.S. Representatives Grace Napolitano, Robert Garcia, and Steven Horsford, along with Nevada State Senator Fabian Doñate and City of Las Vegas Mayor Carolyn G. Goodman, will also be addressing Conference attendees.
